

It is believed that most serial killers have the emotional development of an infant less than 100 days old. This helps explain why stealing women's underwear is so common amongst them. They enjoy the feel of the soft material against their mouth - the primary sensory organ of an infant.

GET INSIDE THE CRIMINAL MIND.

ci crime & investigation
network

SKY

