

The Murray River. Wind down

It's hard not to get carried away by the Murray's relaxed and peaceful pace. Especially when you're on a houseboat. Take one for a cruise and you'll come across charming historical townships, boutique wineries and beautiful, ever-changing vistas. Perfect, whether you're in the mood for exploring, wine tasting or just going with the flow.

The Murray River. Wind down

On every gentle bend of the Murray you'll find the true charm of the place isn't just the leisurely pace of the water, but what's in it too.

Try your hand at coaxing one of the river's many trout, perch and Murray cod. And take in some of the breathtaking scenery as well. So pack your tackle box, forget your worries and spend a couple of days here.

The Murray River. Wind down

There's no such thing as fast food on the Murray.

We take our inspiration from the languid and leisurely pace of the river itself. Our boutique wine makers, chefs and restaurateurs take all the time they need so they only create the finest quality product.

And best of all, when you visit, you'll feel like you have all the time in the world to enjoy it.
